

JEFFERSONIAN REPUBLICAN

Stroudsburg, Pa. Nov. 6, 1840.

Terms, $2.00 in advance; $2.25, half yearly; and $2.50 if not paid before the end of the year.

NEW YORK.

The returns from this State are unofficial, except from the City—which has given Van Buren only 1051 majority. The Locos confidently claimed 3000.—The State has no doubt gone for Harrison by a handsome majority.

A Dreadful Outrage.

An extra from the Harrisburg Chronicle says: "We learn from a passenger who came in the cars from Lancaster last evening, that Cameron's infamous blood-hounds attacked R. W. Middleton, Esq., the independent editor of the Lancaster Examiner, while at the polls, knocked him down, jumped upon him, and cut his face in the most horrible manner; the flesh was cut nearly off on both sides of his face, and left his cheek and jaw bones nearly bare!"

If this be true, the Governor of the State owes it to himself to bring the offenders to justice, by offering a large reward for their apprehension;—and also to dismiss forthwith from employment in the service of the Commonwealth, the principal in this outrage, who is fully known, and whose name has been associated with almost every outrage recently perpetrated on the line of railroad.

NEW JERSEY.

This State has given a Harrison majority of upwards of 2200. We rather think her record seal will be respected hereafter.

OHIO.

It is not worth while to give the details in the various counties. Harrison's majority will not fall short of 25,000.

MONROE COUNTY

OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS 1840.

Townships.	Harrison.	Van Buren.
Stroud	131	160
Hamilton	45	222
Lower Smithfield	42	183
Middle Smithfield	2	208
Chestnut Hill	23	201
Pocono	18	146
Ross	32	147
Price	12	51
Coolbaugh	5	31
Tobyhanna	35	98
	345	1447
		345

Van Buren's majority

Pike county Election Returns.

Townships.	Harrison.	Van Buren.
Milford	29	85
Westfall	12	47
Dingman	14	45
Palmyra	18	52
Delaware	31	87
Lehman	7	97
Lackawaxen	14	100
Green	10	11
	135	524
		135

Van Buren's majority

MARYLAND.

From the Baltimore American of Wednesday.

RECAPITULATION.

Counties.	Har.	V. B.	Whig gain.	V. B. gain.
Baltimore city	7295	7326	238
Baltimore co.*	1248	1874	46
Cecil	1188	1055	108
Hartford	1343	1243	83
Carroll	1475	1540	35
Annapolis	189	123	44
Fredrick	565 maj	224 maj	115
Anne Arundel	154 maj		103
Pr. Georges, 2 dis	80 maj		31
Washington	179 maj		85
Montgomery	400 maj		100
	14134	13385	978
	13385

Harrison maj.

*Not complete.

CONNECTICUT.

From the N. Y. Courier of Wednesday.

HAIL CONNECTICUT!

In this State, as well as in Rhode Island, there is a large Whig gain on the last election. Appearances indicate that the Whig majority is increased to 8000 votes. It will no doubt be the case in all the States where elections have taken place during the summer previous to Mr. Butler's "fifteenth of October," that Harrison will run decidedly better than the local tickets.

PENNSYLVANIA.

THE LATEST RETURNS.

From the Pennsylvania Inquirer of Thursday.

Knowing the anxiety that exists in the public mind, in relation to the results of the recent election in Pennsylvania, we have, in connection with an intelligent friend, gone over all the returns, and compared the various reports, with the object of arriving at a calm, reasonable and unprejudiced conclusion. The table made under these circumstances, will be found below. We have depended upon our own returns, when received from known and responsible sources, and upon the returns of our opponents, when they appeared to possess the most accurate information. It will be seen that the majority for General Harrison is exceedingly small, and the probability is, that the actual result will not be known in Pennsylvania, until the promulgation of the official reports, and in the most formal manner.

Thus far, the official returns have not been received from one third of the counties of the State, and in almost every instance in which they have been received, they have been found to vary from the reports before in circulation. Thus then, with a contest so exceedingly close, we repeat that the truth will not be fully ascertained until we shall have received the returns in an official form, from at least a majority of the counties of the Commonwealth. We again caution our friends against betting, and also against attaching confidence to rumors said to have been brought by passengers, for in some instances we have reason to believe, that such rumors have been manufactured, and for mercenary and fraudulent purposes.

PRESIDENT.

Counties.	Har.	V. B.
Adams	826
Alleghany	3069
Armstrong		348
Beaver	1435
Berks		3843
Bedford	464
Bradford		211
Butler	316
Cambria		111
Centre	827
Chester	761
Clarion		800
Clearfield	280
Clinton	25
Columbia	1486
Crawford	420
Cumberland		96
Dauphin	937
Delaware	694
Eric	1577
Fayette		267
Franklin	694
Green		668
Huntingdon	1558
Indiana	800
Jefferson		50
Junata		77
Lancaster	4208
Lebanon	968
Lehigh		41
Luzerne	1341
Lycoming	677
M'Kean	100
Mercer		916
Mifflin		42
Monroe	1102
Montgomery	801
Northampton	992
Northumberland	836
Perry	901
Philadelphia City,		232
Philadelphia County,		389
Pike	150
Potter		248
Schuylkill		1752
Somerset		459
Susquehanna		913
Tioga		532
Union		100
Venango		513
Warren		1926
Washington		589
Wayne		22,871
Westmoreland		22,296
York		583

Harrison's maj.

We have just received advices from Harrisburg.—The opinion of every person there is that HARRISON IS ELECTED by a majority of not less than 200 and not more than 500. This news comes in a manner which entitles to full credence.

Virginia.

From the U. S. Gazette, of Friday.

The returns from Virginia are from about 60 counties. These give a net Whig gain, on 1836, of about 2200.

The Hon. William C. Rives, who came from Virginia yesterday, said that the State was safe for Harrison.

Correspondence of the United States Gazette.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5, 1840. }
9 o'clock A. M. }

VIRGINIA.

All eyes are now turned upon Virginia. I have returns as follows, from 56 counties, which exhibit a large Whig gain on the election of '36. We find things looking better than yesterday, and our friends in Richmond are in fine spirits. It is certain, however, that the Loco Focos have done their best in their strong-holds—and given unexpectedly large majorities against us in Shenandoah and Rockingham; yet notwithstanding this, we have gained largely on them, compared with the last Presidential election. The result in the counties of Louisa, Fluvanna, Albemarle, and Nelson, (Conservative counties in Mr. Rives's district,) are full of promise. Every thing now depends on the vote of the counties on the North Carolina border, and Little Tennessee, and what is known as the Montgomery Congressional District.

Counties.	1840.	1836.
Orange	2	217
Nottaway	66	70
Amelia	73	83
Surry	100	41
Rappanock	18	100
King William	192	61
Jefferson	78	131
Berkley	229	114
Frederick	4	237
Fairfax	56	54
Richmond	405	317
Clarke		16
Spotsylvania	tie	26
King George	39	96
Dinwiddie	68	7
Stafford		27
Petersburg	17	58
Norfolk Borough	231	136
Norfolk county	83	157
Princess Anne	132	139
Nansemond	110	109
Elizabeth City	70	41
Caroline		60
Hanover		3
Louisa		80
Shenandoah		1155
Hardy	319	148
Hampshire	110
Augusta	800	519
Morgan	50	46
Charles City	179	103
Chesterfield	398	580
Cumberland	259	225
Fluvanna	334	152
Henrico	444	397
New Kent	192	149
Greenville	110	158
Loudon	1269	381
Rockingham		1300
Culpepper	81	9
Essex	125	53
Goochland		213
Nelson	130	219
Albemarle	202	152
Iale of Wight		477
Sussex		227
Madison		318
Greene		168
Page		500
King and Queen	10	229
Prince William	227	176
Accomack	500	617
Northampton	310	284
Westmoreland	230	150
Richmond	581	176
Lancaster	83	93
Gloucester	69	177
Middlesex		21
Prince George		150
Ohio	700	536
Monongalia		400
Fauquier	153	429
James city	168	109
Williamsburg	79	08
Powhatan		33

MAINE.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE COUR. & INQUIRER

EXTRACT TO THE EDITOR DATED

ATLAS OFFICE,

Boston 3d Nov., 1840.

My Dear Sir—I send you with this, a slip from my office, containing the latest news from Maine. Returns are in from 22 towns, mostly from Cumberland County, and the net Whig gain over the September election is 294. Four of these towns, in York county, show a Whig gain of 100, and the remainder of the gain is principally in Cumberland county.

These returns are far more favorable for the Whigs than our most sanguine friends had anticipated, as they expected to lose something in the sea port towns, by reason of the absence of many Whigs, who were at home in September, and make their gain in the country towns. Instead of a loss, however, we are gaining ground, and if the country towns do as well as they promised, the State is safe for Harrison by a large majority.

I have a letter from the Chairman of the State Central Committee, dated at Portland, half past 8 o'clock, last evening, which says, "we have thus far outdone all our calculations, and the prospect now is that we have swept the State by a large majority."

Yours.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

RHODE ISLAND.

HARRISON MAJORITY

1976!!!

From the Providence Journal Extra of Tuesday.

Rhode Island the Flag State.

A Whig Maj. in every County.

The Election has resulted most gloriously. The Whig majority (2 towns to be heard from,) is 1976 in a vote of 8380. If any other State can do better than this, she is welcome to, but we should like to see the vote; if not, we claim the FLAG which is to reward the State giving the largest majority in proportion to its vote. Below are returns from all the towns in the State except Charlestown and New Shoreham, which will not materially vary the result.—Rhode Island has done her duty, and has performed the pledge she made when the Old Hero was nominated.

When our express arrived with the glorious intelligence, a Whig procession was formed at the Town House and marched through the city to the inspiring music of the Brass Band, and the far louder vocal strains in honor of Old Tippecanoe.

Bonfires were made upon Jefferson's Plains and other conspicuous places, lighting up the city with the most brilliant illumination. Joy was upon every face, and congratulations exchanged on all sides by the men whose exertions had been crowned with such triumphant success.

NORTHAMPTON COUNTY

OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS.

Townships.	Harrison.	Van Buren.
Allen	244	188
Bethlehem	101	63
Bushkill	123	104
Correls	123	185
Easton	639	747
East Penn	104	122
Lausanne	86	106
Lower Mount Bethel	171	341
Lower Nazareth	77	117
Lehigh	112	216
Mauch Chunk	81	164
Moore	191	180
Plainfield	113	111
Saucon	156	339
Towamensing	55	245
Upper Mount Bethel	194	260
Upper Nazareth	170	55
Williams	166	298
	2846	3838
		2846

Van Buren's majority

Dreadful Murder and Suicide.

The following particulars are from the New Haven Herald of Wednesday:

Our neighboring towns were shocked yesterday with the report of a most dreadful murder, and the suicide of the murderer, which took place at Wallingford at an early hour in the morning. The circumstances as stated to us are as follows:

A woman, the wife of Atwater Allen, of Wallingford, applied to the Superior Court, now sitting in this town, on Monday last, and obtained a bill of divorce. In the operation she was assisted by a man named David H. Hotchkiss, in whose house, and under whose protection she had lived for the last twelve months. On returning from Court on Monday evening, Hotchkiss wished her to marry him, but her mother coming on a visit to her, and wishing to confer with her, she declined. The mother and daughter slept together, and Hotchkiss in another room.

In the morning Hotchkiss called on Mrs. Allen to get up, which she did not do, and he called a second time. His call not being attended to, he became infuriated, and having procured an axe he went into the room and struck the woman while in bed with the axe, each blow proving fatal, but with savage ferocity he turned the edge of his axe, and literally chopped his victim limb from limb. The desperate man then returned to his own room, and with a knife severed the jugular vein, and in a short time bled to death. He seems to have been sitting on the edge of the bed, when he thrust his large pocket knife into the side of his neck, by which he opened a jugular vein, after which he walked a few steps towards the door, as the bloody track of his feet indicated; but probably finding himself faint, returned and threw himself upon the bed, where he soon expired.

We understand that all the parties engaged in this are of the lowest order of society, and very intemperate. The immediate agent in this awful catastrophe was rum, Hotchkiss having purchased two quarts on Monday, most of which he had consumed.

COUNTERFEIT.—The Cincinnati Republican cautions the public against receiving $100 notes on the bank of Cleveland, of a new issue. They are so well executed that several have been taken by the different banks in the former city. The numbers on the bills range from 440 to 460.

HEAR COL. CROGHAN!
The Slanderers of Harrison Signally Rebuked!

Among the basest deeds, even of Loco-Focoism, is the trick of Kendall and Blair in publishing certain letters of Col. Croghan, written to Gen. Harrison under a temporary misapprehension and excitement, some fifteen years ago. How they were obtained we cannot discover; but the Globe distinctly admitted that it had no authority to publish them! But this was not the worst of the business. They were falsely given to the public as the "Correspondence between Col. Croghan and Gen. Harrison," while Gen. Harrison's letters were entirely suppressed! and their place supplied by a malignant and deceptive commentary from the pen of Amos Kendall! Could knavery go farther than this?

Col. CROGHAN, we perceive, disdains to be even a passive accomplice in this base assault on his old commander. He has come out with a direct disclaimer of the whole Globe manufacture, stating that the publication of his old letters was unauthorized, and that he regards Gen. Harrison as a wise and able commander, without fear or reproach. But we leave his letter and that of Gen. Gaines to speak for themselves; only entreating the friends of Gen. Harrison and of the Country's honor to place them in the hands of every honest man who has been deceived in regard to Col. Croghan's feelings and sentiments by the falsehoods of the Loco-Foco press. Here are the documents:

From the St. Louis Republican, Oct. 8.

Below we publish the correspondence between Col. Churchill and Col. Croghan, relative to Gen. Harrison. This correspondence puts to rest the vexed question of Col. Croghan's opinions of Gen. Harrison, and will, doubtless, put the Globe man to much uneasiness, as it overturns all his labored arguments to prove Harrison ungrateful to Col. C. The communication comes full late. If any injury has resulted from the publication of Col. C.'s private correspondence, this will hardly be to neutralize its effects. By the way, we cannot esteem it any thing else than a false delicacy which has kept this exposition back thus long. Whilst we admit the propriety of a U. S. officer keeping aloof from the party contests of the day, we cannot see any obligation resting on him to stand by for months, and see his name used to do injustice to another.

Correspondence.

St. Louis, Sept. 26, 1840.

Dear Colonel:—I am well aware that you take no part in the political warfare of the times, and it is from no desire to draw you from your neutrality that I now address you.

During the last two years I have had the pleasure frequently to meet you, and have never yet heard you declare yourself for either of the Presidential candidates now before the People, and I have no wish to see you commit yourself on this subject. I believe, sir, that your relations with Gen. Harrison as well as with Mr. Van Buren are of the most friendly character, and that you regard them both with feelings of friendship. Whilst you disparage neither, I have heard you speak of both in terms of praise, and I feel satisfied that you will answer the questions I ask you in the candor and sincerity of a soldier.

Some letters of yours have been recently published during your absence from Washington and many have endeavored to produce the impression that you have authorized the publication, and have thrown your influence against Gen. Harrison. I do not believe that it is so; but would like to learn from yourself, whether the publication of those letters was authorized by you.

At Tippecanoe you were one of the Aids of Gen. Boyd, and performed a glorious part in that, as in other hard fought battles, which have added to the fame and honor of our country. I should be pleased to know if on that occasion, or at any time during the war, Gen. Harrison showed any want of bravery; and further, if the ground selected for the encampment of his troops at Tippecanoe was injudiciously or improperly chosen.

During the war, sir, you performed a most distinguished part, and your name will always be associated with its most brilliant achievements, as long as there is left one American heart to admire your gallant and glorious defence of Sandusky. You have had as good an opportunity to form a correct opinion of the courage and conduct of Gen. Harrison, as any other officer, and I should be pleased to have your opinion upon these matters.

Respectfully yours,

SAMUEL B. CHURCHILL.

St. Louis, Oct. 6th, 1840.

Colonel Churchill:—In reply to your letter of the twenty-sixth ultimo, I can only state, that the publication of the letters to which you allude was not authorized by me, and that I never, during the whole war, saw General Harrison at any time show any want of courage. On the contrary I have every reason to believe him a brave man. Upon the receipt of yours, I addressed a letter to General Gaines, with which I held frequent conversations years ago, and in a following letter of his contains the opinion which I then entertained, and which I still retain.

Respectfully,

G. CROGHAN.

St. Louis, Oct. 2d, 1840.

Dear Colonel:—At your request, I stated to you the substance of our several conversations touching your opinion of General Harrison as your unhappy difference with that distinguished officer.

The first conversation which took place between us was at Fort Stephenson, where I was commanded in the early part of September, eighteen hundred and thirteen, when Mr.